cash value. The Contest Sponsor reserves the right, in its absolute discretion, to substitute a prize of equal value in whole or in part for any reason.

7. WINNER SELECTION:

Three (3) winners shall be selected as follows:

- a. The performances by Entrants will be judged by a panel comprised of members of the Mississauga Library System's Teen Advisory Groups. Each performance will be given a final score out of ten (10) immediately following the performance; five (5) out of the ten (10) marks will be based on the poem itself, while the other five (5) will be based on the performance of the poem. Judges may also choose to assign up to one decimal point to their score (for example a score could be recorded as 4.5 or 4.6. Audience reaction to both poem and performance may be taken into consideration by judges when assigning scores.
- b. All scores will remain confidential. Judges will record their scores on prepared ballots, which will be passed onto the scorekeeper, who will enter the scores in a prepared spreadsheet, designed for automatic tally. The scorekeeper will keep the individual ballots until the end of the evening, and they will be shredded following the event.
- c. In the event of a tie amongst two or more Entrants for any of the top three positions, tiebreaking rules will come into effect. The names of the tied Entrants will be returned to the judges on prepared tiebreaking ballots, who will each rank the tied Entrants in their preferred order. These will be returned to the scorekeeper, who will tally the ranking of each Entrant based on the following point system: (i) one (1) point for first (1st) place; (ii) two (2) points for second (2nd) place; and (iii) three (3) points for third (3rd) place etc. For tiebreaking purposes, the lowest ranking score will determine the final positions. If necessary, this process will be repeated until the first (1st), second (2nd) and third (3rd) positions are determined.
- d. All genres and styles of poetry are welcome.
- e. Only original poems written by an Entrant will be accepted. Poems deemed to be another poet's work and/or plagiarized from another source will not be assigned scores and will be disqualified.
- f. Entrants are welcome to read their poems from a page, improvise, or recite the poem from memory. Judges are entitled to score the performance at their own discretion.
- g. No props, costumes, musical instruments, dramatic use of clothing or other assistive aids are allowed. Participants will be judged on the merit of their poem and its presentation. Judges will deduct three (3) points for a violation of this Rule.
- h. Each Entrant is allotted three (3) minutes of performance time. Entrants are responsible for keeping track of the timing of their performance and being aware of the cues and warnings provided by the timekeepers. Timing will commence once the Entrant has reached speaking distance of microphone. At the ninety (90) second mark, a green card will be flashed, indicating Entrant is halfway through allotted time. A yellow card will be flashed at the two (2) minute mark, followed by a red card at the two (2) minutes thirty (30) second mark. All colour cards are to be held for five (5) seconds. At the three (3) minute mark, "X" card is held up to indicate Entrant has gone overtime. "X" card is held until Entrant is finished performance. At the four (4) minute mark, if the Entrant is still not finished, performance is interrupted and the Entrant is asked to continue off the stage. Entrants will be allotted a ten (10) second grace period following the three (3) minute mark in which no points shall be deducted from their score. After this, Entrants will be penalized one half-point (0.5) for each ten (10) second period the performance continues following the grace period. There is no minimum time for performances, and the length of the poem does not reflect its merit.

- i. The selected Entrants will be notified by the Contest Sponsor in person at the conclusion of the Contest Period. All Entrants who wish to be judged and considered eligible for a prize must be present at Mississauga Central Library in the Noel Ryan Auditorium on Friday April 29, 2011 at 7:00 pm. The Contest Sponsor is not responsible for the failure for any reason whatsoever of a selected Entrant to receive notification or for the Contest Sponsors failure to receive a selected Entrant's response.
- j. If a selected Entrant: (i) is not present at the commencement of the Contest Event; (ii) has not complied with these Contest Rules; or (iii) declines the prize; then that person's entry is disqualified and the prize forfeited and the Contest Sponsor may, but is not obligated to, select another Entrant from the remaining eligible entries received during the Contest Period (not including the entries chosen for the other prizes) for a chance to receive the prize. The Contest Sponsor reserves the right to not select another entry or award a prize if any of the events in subsections 7(j)(i) – (iii) occur.
- k. Winners will be announced at the close of the Contest Period to the audience present and may also be announced through the Contest Sponsor website and publications. If the selected Entrant does not respond within the Response Period, he/she may not be eligible for the prize and another Entrant may be selected in the Contest Sponsors sole discretion.
