

Class “A” CPGA Director of Instruction

As a Class “A” member of the CPGA, and Director of Instruction for the Academy@Braeben, Bradlee Ryall has one of the highest pedigrees possible. Since graduating from the University of Western Ontario and the Golf Management Program at Humber College, Bradlee has studied and trained with some of the best golf instructors in the world at the David Leadbetter Golf Academy (IMG, and Champions Gate, Florida)

Bradlee has appeared on the cover of Score Golf Magazine in July 2007, and was also the feature instructor in the August edition of Score Golf Magazine in 2009. Bradlee is a CPGA Featured Professional (www.cpga.com) and was nominated for the Ontario PGA Teacher of the year award in 2009. Bradlee has worked as a teaching professional at some of the greatest golfing destinations in the world. They include The Fairmont Jasper Park Lodge (Alberta, Canada), The Punta Cana Golf and Beach Resort (Punta Cana, Dominican Republic), and The Sheraton Pine Cliffs Resort (Algarve, Portugal).

Bradlee has also asserted himself as a top playing professional in Ontario. As a member of the Great Lakes Tour and OPGA he has enjoyed success with many top ten finishes and several Pro-am Victories.

Philosophy- " Simple, Smile, and Adapt" I have found my success to be attributed for my drive to create a learning environment where my students become their own best coach. Everyone is an individual with different needs. Through strong communication, interaction and self awareness, my students have been able to improve their golf game, individual life, and have build trust in my brand. My company and my instructors are eager to share this same approach with all of you!!!

Brian McCann, CPGA Instructor

In 1995-96 Brian was the #1 ranked amateur in the province of Ontario and represented Canada in the World Amateur Championship in the Philippines and the Four Nations Cup in Japan.

From 1993-97 Brian attended Arkansas State University on a golf scholarship. In 1998 he turned professional and played on the Canadian Tour from 1999-2003. In 2003 Brian made it to the final stage of PGA Tour Qualifying School where he obtained his Nationwide Tour card for 2004 and retained it under the 2006 season. In 2006 he qualified for the Buick Open in Michigan and in 2007 he qualified for the Canadian Open. From 2001 to present he is the all-time money leader on the Great Lakes Tour.

Also of note Brian's long-time swing coach while he was playing full-time and who he learned from is PGA Tour Coach Sean Foley who presently coaching Stephen Ames, Hunter Mahan, Sean O'Hair and Justin Rose. Brian is excited to bring all his golf experiences and learning to the Braeben Academy and take your game to the next level.

Jamie Reid, CPGA Instructor

Jamie Reid returns to the Braeben Golf Academy for the 2010 Season focusing on the development of junior golf in Canada and helping you develop your own golf game. With over 16yrs experience in the golf industry, Jamie has developed many successful junior programs at some off Ontario's premier courses. Jamie is a level 4 C.P.G.A Professional and has worked under some of Canada's top C.P.G.A Professional's and has learned many different strategies to help you understand and develop your swing.

As the lead instructor for the Nike Golf Camp for the past 4 yrs, Jamie is very excited to introduce his own level 2 camp for the 2010 Season. This camp will be ideal for all graduates of the level one camp and will focus on more advanced techniques and course management. Jamie will also oversee his famous and popular Saturday junior clinics and Junior Golf League that will run on Sunday Evenings. Jamie will be available to teach all adult programs and lessons and excited to share his knowledge and experience for you in 2010.

Jim Zwolak, CPGA Instructor/Fitness Coach

Jim comes to the Braeben Academy team with an extensive international competitive resume. As an amateur, he twice represented Canada at the World University Games (2002 Taiwan, 2004 Thailand). Competing as a Wilfrid Laurier Golden Hawk, he was a four-time Ontario University Athletics All-Star and won the 2002 OUA Individual Championship. He was also a member of the RCGA College/University National Championship Team from Humber College in 2004. Since turning professional in 2005, Jim has won twice on the Great Lakes Tour, and earned status on the Canadian Tour, playing the full season in 2008.

Jim considers himself a student of golf; he continually searches out new ways to be better as a player and as an instructor/coach. Some of his favorite areas of study include: teaching and learning, motor skill development, kinesiology and sport performance training, physics, and training for the optimal mental zone.

Last fall, Jim took on the role as head coach of the Wilfrid Laurier University Golf Program. He will also be continuing his competitive career locally on the Great Lakes Tour and the Ontario PGA circuit. He looks forward to helping you explore your golf game this season!!

Dave Levesque, CPGA Instructor

Dave Levesque has more than 14 years of experience in the golf industry as a Tournament professional, club professional and golf teacher.

Since joining the Ontario PGA in 2007, Dave has won four times, including what are considered two major championships (Ontario PGA Championship and Ontario PGA Assistants' Championship). In the process, he has also set two course records and shot a remarkable 34-under par.

Dave's golfing achievements and awards include:

- 2009 Ontario PGA Player Of The Year
- Winner of the 2008 Ontario PGA Elite Championship (The Briars)
- Winner of the 2007 Ontario PGA Championship (Barrie CC)
- Winner of the 2007 Ontario PGA Fall Championship (Braeben GC)
- Winner of the 2009 Ontario PGA Assistants' Championship (Peninsula Lakes GC)

Passionate about the learning process, Dave has become an excellent teacher. He also has many years of experience conducting private outings as well as managing customer, business and sponsorship relations.

Dave his proud to join a very capable and select team of professionals, and team members that have played on the PGA, Nationwide, Canadian and Great Lakes Tour. He understand that his addition to The Academy confirm that The BraeBen Golf Academy is The Best facility to host your special outing, group clinic or private lesson.

Collin Brookes, CPGA Instructor

Collin Victor Brookes was born in Etobicoke, Ontario and started his golf career at the age of 6 years old. He enjoyed many years of playing the game as an amateur and honed his playing skills on Florida's Moonlight Tour.

His priority is to help students establish good basic fundamentals and the feel of the golf swing. Collin also believes that developing a swing that fits the student's needs and ability is very important to the success of the student. It is an instructor's job to mould a teaching style to each student. This allows a student to learn in a comfortable learning environment. Collin's instructional philosophy is centered on designing lesson plans based on realistic and attainable goal setting.

Collin's has a thirst for progressing in the game of golf as well as helping people along that same path. What makes him a great instructor is his ability to explain a thought or drill in more than one way. He is passionate about advancing the game of golf through quality instruction and has dedicated much of his professional career to creating exciting and fun programs for beginners, men, women, and juniors of all levels and abilities.

Collin is known for his fun-loving nature and the ability to adjust instruction style to fit the individual needs of each student. His skills, versatility and cheerful personality enable him to teach students from all age groups.

Graham Russell, Corporate Sales/Administrator

Graham comes to the Braeben Academy team from Niagara College Business Golf Management program. Working in the golf business since the age of 13, Graham has taken his passion for golf and customer service into his new role as Director of Business Development for Bradlee Ryall Golf Enterprises, and as the Braeben Academy Administrator.. Graham will be more than happy to facilitate your next team building event, or corporate outing.